New Chef

The Montauk Yacht Club has a new executive chef this season at its Gulf Coast Kitchen and Hurricane Alley restaurants. Robbin Haas, from South Florida, has worked in places such as the Four Seasons, Turnberry Isle Resort, Noble House Hotels, and China Grill Management, and has opened two restaurants of his own in Antigua, Guatemala, as well as one in Coral Gables, Fla. He will center the menu items at the yacht club eateries on local fish and produce. He is known for his love of tropical flavor and fusions and has developed a range of international cuisines, having honed his culinary talents in travels across Southeast Asia, Russia, Finland, Continental Europe, the Mediterranean, and the Americas.
