Looks like Bethenny Frankel is going to be stinking up the airwaves for at least a little while longer. As readers of The News know, the debut of her solo Bravo reality show, "Bethenny Getting Married?," got generally terrible reviews. Our David Hinckley gave the series one out of five stars, and we still think he may have been nice. But, like the BP oil spill, Frankel has yet to be stopped. The loudmouth mom was spotted filming last weekend at the Montauk Yacht Club out east: a telltale sign that show will indeed be back for a second season.
