

KidMontauk

A parent's guide to having fun in Montauk, NY

Sign Your Kids Up For Surf Craft

Posted June 10th, 2010 by heather | No Comments

Have you heard about Surf Craft? If you haven't, I'm sure you will be hearing much more about it soon.

What is it? Surf Craft is a two hour drop-off summer program for kids ages 4-10. Each Surf Craft session incorporates an enriching theme, arts and crafts, upbeat socialization, and a healthy snack. The curriculum is interdisciplinary and exploratory, connecting your child's creative side with skill building in literacy, cultural and environmental awareness. They offer an innovative, organized opportunity for children to engage their fine motor skills while jamming by the beach!

Where and when is Surf Craft offered? Surf Craft will be at some of the hottest and most fun places to be in Montauk this summer! With scheduled drop and dines and happy hour time slots set at Sole East, Navy Beach, Surf Lodge and Montauk Yacht Club, you cannot go wrong by making your children happy crafting and making new friends while you relax with down time to eat, swim, read or whatever suits your fancy!

Who started Surf Craft? Jodi Jefferson, mother of two and Early Childhood educated, is the founder of Surf Craft. She is someone you can trust to leave your children with.

Posted in Indoors, Outdoors,

Uncategorized | No Comments »