

MOVIEWEB

Movies At Your Fingertip

Get the Free Fandango App on Your Phone

MY

USERS

WATCH NOW

NEWS

MOVIES

DVD

TV

Bethenny Frankel Offers a Behind-the-Scenes Look at Bethenny Getting Married?

0
THUMBS UP

0
COMMENTS

June 10th, 2010

It's all about brides and babies on Bravo's newest docu-series Bethenny Getting Married? Featuring The Real Housewives of New York City star Bethenny Frankel as she prepares for two of life's biggest milestones - a wedding and a baby - simultaneously. Watch as Bethenny's life goes into over-drive as she prepares for motherhood and becoming a real Housewife when she weds fiancé Jason Hoppy, all while juggling her burgeoning career as an author and natural foods chef. Bethenny Getting Married? Premieres Thursday, June 10 at 10PM ET/PT with Episode 1.01: Mi Casa, Su Nasa. Only on Bravo.

We recently caught up with Bethenny Frankel to chat about her new show. Here's what the housewife had to say for herself:

I watched the first episode and your show seems to have a lot more humor integrated into it than the Real Housewives does. So was this something that you did intentionally because you wanted a more lighthearted show?

Bethenny Frankel talks Bethenny Getting Married?

---

Bethenny Frankel: You know, I don't think that, you know, I'm not really – in my life I mean The Real Housewives of New York City – how do I explain it? It doesn't really show me in my true light. I mean you see bits and pieces of me, and you can kind of get the sense of me. But really I mean I'm not – I'm not a woman that really hangs out with a lot of women. I don't – I really focus mostly on work and when I'm in a relationship, in my relationship. And so this kind of just gets more micro. It really gets into the real details of my life. There's no big – it's not like big blowouts at cocktail or what do I call it, or charity events. It's not – I mean I don't really go out that much. I'm pretty much home in my pajamas most of the time unless I have to go somewhere for work. Like I'm right now home in my pajamas and feeding the baby and hanging out with the dog and working, editing my books in bed. But then in an hour I have to go to Access Hollywood. Like that's kind of more what my life is really like than me, you know, then you getting the slice in The Real Housewives of New York City where we're always in nice outfits at charity events. Like I do that once in a while but it's not really the – it's not the main course of my life which this show kind of shows the nonsense in my life.

So is this show would you say more dedicated to your personal life or your professional life?

Bethenny Frankel: It's a balance of both really. I would say it's more dedicated to the struggles I go through being 39, getting engaged, getting pregnant, doing everything backwards. You know, being pregnant at my bridal shower. Now having...the baby, I have the baby shower. Like nothing I do is sort of right side up it seems. And then balancing my career – it's not, you know, I don't want – I didn't want this to be like let's show all my products or anything. I mean all of my things are doing very well. It's, you know, I'm lucky to be successful. But it's more about a discussion Jason and I have about planning the wedding or, you know, that I was the runaway bride and getting me down the aisle. And what it's like to shop for a wedding dress when six months pregnant. It's more of like I said, it's really the – I think the devil's in the details. It's not about the giant, you know, I don't pull my baby out of my you know what. But I think the fact that what it's like to have your water break five weeks before you give birth and what you put in your bag to go there. Like I said, the devil's in the details. That's more – I sweat the small stuff. I could like have a c-section and not be on any pain medication. But if you give me too small of a portion at the ice cream store I may have a nervous breakdown. Like that's kind of the type of person that I am.

What are you doing this summer, if you're planning to go to the Hamptons at all and if so what are some of your favorite places out there?

Bethenny Frankel: I love the Montauk Yacht Club. That's where we're planning to go. In fact Jason gets paternity leave for like 16 days and that's where we're going. So we're going there in August. We were supposed to go this week. But, you know, with a new baby the stuff – I have stuff anxiety so that alone will give me anxiety. But we're going to go next week. They have – there's a place – I like The Hideaway, which is a place in Montauk, which you go through a bait and tackle shop and it's like a dive Mexican place. Because you know I love my margaritas and – that was my greatest joy except for having Bryn, to sip tequila. I was like – crack. We will go to The Palm because Jason loves to get a good steak and so that's like our little – when we decide to, you know, as we call it dip in, like get it, you know, be in with the cool people...The Palm. John's Drive-In has the best ice cream I've ever had in my life much less anywhere. It's in Montauk. It's like a – it looks almost like a drive up place. You know what I mean? Like with roller skates too. It's got like hamburgers but all we get is the ice cream. Peanut butter cup I think it's called – or peanut butter explosion. I like the – we're going to play golf at the Montauk Downs. I'm going to go (stirrups) at Ditch Plains. I am going to – what else are we going to do? We even – all we do is eat. Oh, go to John's steakhouse and like eat and hang out. Oh, yoga at Sangha Yoga – S-A-N-G-H-A Yoga. And yeah, I think all we do is eat. Oh, go to a Mexican place. For some reason we go to all of the Mexican places. That's it.