

Montauk Is The New Southampton.

The Montauk Yacht Club. Round 81, er, Two.

The Montauk Yacht Club may be 81 years old, but it wasn't until Andrew Farkas bought the place and spiffed it up in 2007 that it became relevant to the GofG radar. Last Summer there were 20's-themed parties, Burger Bashes, and late night Fourth of July bashes. Claire Danes and Jay McInerney even visited the place to read some books to socialites.

There will, no doubt, be more parties under the white tents of the Montauk Yacht Club this summer.
